Alberque Awarded 6th Achievement Medal

PENSACOLA, Fla. -- Chief Religious Program Specialist (Submarine Warfare and Fleet Marine Force-qualified) Bruce M. Alberque was recently awarded the Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal for his performance as the coordinator for the Chief of Naval Education and Training Sailor of the Year program.

As CNET Sailor of the Year coordinator, Alberque was instrumental in coordinating a solid agenda of events with Naval Education and Training Command activities. He was responsible for key administration and ceremonial logistics. The 24-year Navy veteran was praised by the chief of Naval Education and Training, Vice Adm. John W. Craine Jr., for his “exceptional professionalism and charisma” as the master of ceremonies during the Sailor of the Year banquet.

Alberque received a silver star in lieu of his sixth award.
